Re: Freedom Of Information Request

Dear Senator Moynihan:

My husband, [REDACTED] (now deceased), a naturalized United States citizen, born in Ireland, joined the United States Army at the start of World War II, and was immediately transferred to the Civilian War Industry due to his special civilian defense industry skills.

STAT

At the time of his enlistment he was advised that the United States Army Intelligence Office in New York City created a background file on him because he had been in a foreign army (Ireland) before coming to the United States.

I need to obtain all records on my husband as I am now applying for a pension which makes it imperative that I furnish this background information as soon as possible.

I am 78 years of age and am respectfully requesting all records from the following three (3) agencies:

- 1) Federal Bureau of Investigations
- 2) Central Intelligence Agency
- 3) United States Army Intelligence and trust they process my Freedom Information Request. Previously, I was told the processing time for such a request is lengthy and since the information I seek is quite old, that it was probably shored by the above agencies after World War II when old intelligence files were destroyed.

I am hoping that one of these agencies kept this or other pertinent information.

Thus, I hereby respectfully request that U.S. Senator Moynihan act as my representative and ask these agencies to forward all my late husband's government documents directly to my address as follows:

My age makes time of the essence, and the reason I am making this request through the United States Senator's office.

Handled otherwise, it may well take up to a year to process my request.

Very truly yours,
